What is GIDEP?

GIDEP (Government-Industry Data Exchange Program) is a cooperative activity between government and industry participants seeking to reduce or eliminate expenditures of resources by sharing technical information essential during research, design, development, production and operational phases of the life cycle of systems, facilities and equipment.

What does GIDEP have to offer?

Since GIDEP's inception, participants have reported over $1 BILLION in prevention of unplanned expenditures. That means without GIDEP, participants could have potentially realized additional expenses of over $1 billion. Read just some of the success stories!

Proper utilization of GIDEP data can materially improve the total quality and reliability of systems and components during the acquisition and logistics phases of the life cycle and reduce costs in the development and manufacture of complex systems and equipment.

DSCC “Template Bridge Page”

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the "PSMC Bridge Pages - DSCC" website. The address bar shows the URL: <http://dmp.gidep.org/communityconnections/Organizations/PSMCBridge%20Pages/DSCC.aspx>. The page content includes a navigation menu with links like Home, What's New, About DPMP, Search the DPMP, Feedback, DPMP Calendar, and Agreement. Below the menu, there is a section titled "Organizations" with a search bar and a list of organizations. The first organization listed is "Defense Supply Center Columbus". A red arrow points from the title "DSCC 'Template Bridge Page'" to the "Defense Supply Center Columbus" link in the list.

DSCC will take control of this template bridge page during the Beta Test phase and will replace this template page with a customized bridge page specifically targeted on the parts management community.

The customized bridge page will provide links to tools and other destinations the DSCC wishes to make available or showcase.

The “template bridge page” will generally link to one or more destinations. On this page, clicking on the words “Defense Supply Center Columbus” will take the user to the DSCC Home Page.
